Join us on May 21 from 12pm-1:30pm EDT for a chance to engage with colleagues implementing virtual exchange.

This session will feature a brief overview of Collaborative Online International Learning (COIL), then two sets of breakout rooms for small group discussions. Whether you are a beginner, intermediate, or expert COILer, we look forward to your questions, reflections, and thinking around this impactful work in the classroom.

AGENDA

Roundtable 1

BEGINNER track: What is COIL? (with examples)

ADVANCED track: Troubleshooting: Refining COIL projects by learning from our mistakes

ADMINISTRATOR track: Post Pandemic Promoting and institutionalizing COIL on your campus

Roundtable 2

BEGINNER track: How do I choose a platform and find a partner?

ADVANCED track: COIL 3.0: Expanding the notion of a virtual exchange

ADMINISTRATOR track: COIL Publishing + Finding funding: Grant writing and other options
